Dear Family and Friends,

It appears that the end of Dante's life is coming closer. I want you to know that because of the Easter weekend, the Memorial service will be held next week.

Exact day depends on the time of death. I'm sending this because I know that some are trying to decide what to do in terms of leaving town for the weekend.

Please pray for us during this very difficult and painful time. We remain in His Grip,
The Venegas Family
