Talented Entrepreneur Anticipates National Attention

Throughout the past few years, the Pella, Iowa affiliate of Partners Worldwide has witnessed an established business grow through increased mentoring and access to capital. Operated by Guillermo Diaz (above) and located in the business center of Catacamus, Honduras, the meat market has become a well-known enterprise that provides income and opportunity for Guillermo and his family, as well as five full-time and four part-time employees. Despite the recent growth and success of his business, Guillermo continues to see opportunity for growth and advancement.
