Overview

Wednesday Night Out is a ministry with meals and classes for all ages!

A gathering where we are introduced to Jesus, grow in our walk with Christ, empowered and trained to serve in a multicultural context, and go deeper in our journey with God.

Note: some classes have different meeting dates and times, see inside.

We are taking a break on November 1 for No Fear Here, and another on November 22, when there will be a Thanksgiving worship service.

Classes

God and the Gospel

Sanctuary

Dr. Jeff Fisher (a North Campus member) is teaching one of his theology classes for Kuyper College at the Square Campus.

This new initiative seeks to integrate the learning that takes place in the church and theological higher education by bringing together college students and local church members.

The series of 3-4 week sessions aims to facilitate a dynamic that is active and inquisitive with real questions about God and life from real people at various stages of life and faith.

You are invited to grow your biblical knowledge and faith through this free college experience that will focus on specific topics related to the Trinity, the Messiah, and Salvation: God and the Gospel. All are welcome.

How to Read The Bible

Room 307/308

How should we read the Bible? How should we understand its inspiration and authority? What do we do with contradictions, inaccuracies, and moral difficulties expressed in the Bible? When was it written? What kinds of literature does it contain? How and when did we arrive at 66 books? Led by Don Huizinga.
